No jewelry is allowed. Shinguards are mandatory.

Playing Rules:

WSYSA Rules - WSYSA rules will apply, except as amended below.

FIFA Laws of the Game – All matches must be played in accordance with the FIFA Laws of the Game, except as specifically modified as follows in the tournament rules:

No Protests : No protests will be allowed and all referee decisions will be final , except those concerning the use of overage or ineligible players. The opposing coach and referee must be notified of an overage/ineligible protest prior to leaving the field of play and the protest must be submitted in writing to the Field Coordinator within 30 minutes of the match completion. If a protest is upheld, forfeiture will be awarded for the protested match (a 1-0 victory for the non-offending team) and all previously played matches that included the overage/ineligible player

The Judiciary Committee : The Judiciary Committee will settle all protests and disputes regarding overage or ineligible players. Decisions by the Judiciary Committee deciding a protest or dispute are final and may not be appealed.

Who's Eligible: All players must be eligible to play in their age division (including guest players). A team roster listing the jersey number, name and date of birth of each player, plus player cards or birth certificates for each player must be carried by the coach/manager to all games for inspection by the referee. All players must also have a medical release form available at each game.

Conduct: All coaches have total responsibility for the conduct of their players, coaching staff, and team spectators. At no time shall foul or abusive language or misconduct be permitted at any field or other facilities being used for the tournament. Coaches who are either unable or unwilling to control themselves or their sidelines may be cautioned or sent off. The referee will file a written report with the tournament Judicial Committee. A copy of the report and a statement of any action will be sent to the respective state, provincial, or national office. Animals, weapons, illegal substance and alcoholic beverages are not permitted.

Termination of Play : If in the opinion of the referee, game play must be terminated for misconduct of the coach, players and/or spectators, the offending team will be charged with a loss and the score will be determined by the judiciary committee. If, in the opinion of the referee, both teams are offending, the game will be terminated and the judiciary committee will determine the score.

Red and Yellow Cards: Any Coach or player receiving two yellow cards or one red card in a game will be sent off from that game. In addition, said Coach or player(s) will not take part in the next game of the tournament. The Referees shall file a misconduct report with the Judicial Committee, who shall review the report, and may, at their option, increase or decrease the suspension in accordance with WSYSA guidelines. Coaches of any player sent off must report to the Tournament Director or any member of the Judicial Committee within sixty (60) minutes after the match. A player accumulating three yellow cards during the tournament will have to sit out the next scheduled game. A red card for violent conduct may result in either a three game suspension or elimination from further play in the tournament as determined by the Judicial Committee. The respective state, provincial or national office of the disciplined team or player will be notified. For CONCACAF teams, the committee will notify the US Soccer Federation of disciplinary action taken, and that the Federation will transmit the disciplinary action taken or required to that teams' Provincial or National Association.

Substitutions: All age groups will have unlimited substitution with permission of the referee.

Reporting of Scores: Referees are responsible for reporting the score of all games to the Field Coordinator at the field, which will then be delivered to the official scorekeepers who will post on the scoreboards.

Six Second Rule: Goalies will be required to use the 6-second rule as defined in FIFA Laws of the Game. "An indirect free kick is awarded to the opposing team if the goalkeeper, inside his own penalty area:

Takes more than six seconds while controlling the ball with his hands before releasing it from his possession."
Format:

Venues: All games will be played in Yakima, Washington at the Perry Soccer Complex & Chesterley Park. Another site may be designated pending the approval of the Tournament Directors.

Scoring: 6 points for a win plus - 1 point for every goal up to 3, 3 points for a tie, 1 point for a shut-out, and 0 points for a loss.

Tie Breaker: In case of a tie within a group, the following will determine who participates in the championship match.

1. Head to head competition.
2. Fewest number of goals scored against.
3. Goal differential (max. 5 per game).
4. Coin toss.

All games will have five-minute half times unless shortened by the authority of the Field Coordinator (not the referee). If the start time of a game is more than 10 minutes behind schedule, the Field Coordinator may make a decision to shorten the game. He/She will do so by informing the coaches, prior to the start of the game, if the game time will need to be shortened by 5 minutes for each half. Field Coordinators will make every effort to have Semi-Final and Final games start on time and run their full length. Mandatory 5 minute water breaks may be determined by the Tournament Director based on the current conditions at the time. Each team will be notified prior to the start of each game affected by this temporary rule.

Forfeiture – A team that is more than 15 minutes late forfeits or that cannot field the minimum players needed to start the game, 11 and above is 7 players, 10 and below is 3 players. In the case of a traffic accident or something unavoidable, the coach of the opposing team can agree to a re-schedule.

If a team wins by forfeit, they will be awarded a 1-0 win and receive 8 points.

Home Team - The Home Team is the team listed first will be responsible for uniform color change in the event of uniform color conflict.

Location of Teams and Spectators – Players and their Coaches will be located on the same side of the field, while spectators will be on opposite sides of the field. The Spectators must be located directly across the field from their respective teams. This rule may be altered if both coaches agree before the start of their respective game. No spectators will be allowed behind the Goals.

When selecting more than one team using the tie breaking rules, the tie breaking rules will be re-applied from the beginning after each team is selected.
